

May Programs for Kids

Reading Without Walls Storytime

Wednesdays 5:30 p.m. -6:15 pm, Main Library

Join us for an exploration of books that reflect the full diversity of our community. Each week we will explore a different theme through stories, songs and art—racial justice and history, families, the refugee experience, gender identity and expression, feminism, and food scarcity and hunger. Best for ages 4 and up.

Book Swap Party

Friday, May 12, 2:00-4:00 pm, Main Library

Do you have a gently used book you think other kids would love? Your used book is your entry ticket to our first annual Book Swap Party! Choose a different book to take home, make a customized book plate, decorate a bookmark, and more! Please limit one book exchange per child. Ages 6+

Junior Volunteer Orientation

Thursday, May 25 5:00-6:00 pm, Main Library

Children ages 9 and up can join our new Junior Volunteer Program this summer! Come find out more about the tasks, schedule, responsibilities and rewards of this highly coveted position! Sign up for your weekly shift, get a tour, and make your name badge. Kids entering grades 3-6

Spring into Reading

April 1-May 31

Just as the weather is getting warmer, we want you to get warmed up for our Summer Library Challenge! Log your reading time on Beanstack, and earn a badge for every 30 minutes you read. Once you've earned all 10 of our spring themed badges, come back to any library location to add your name to our Beanstack Badge Board!
