

MONDAY MORNINGS AT MAIN
2019 LIFELONG LEARNING
FOR AGES 50 AND BETTER

La Crosse Public Library, lower level auditorium
February, March, April 9:30-11 a.m.

- Feb. 4—Mark Twain presented by Michael Scott, storyteller and actor
11—Early African Americans in La Crosse presented by Denise Christy and others
18—The New China presented by Bob Wingate
25—Murder in Wisconsin: The Clara Olson Case presented by Larry Scheckel
- Mar. 4—Preparing to Canoe the Boundary Waters presented by Tom Pahs
11—Decoding the Driftless presented by George Howe
18—Dublin’s Daughters, Irish music with Regina Chehak, Julie Bodendein, and Jackie Stackston
25—The Hitler of History presented by Dr. Greg Wegner
- April 1—River Valley Raptors presented by Abby Kumraie
8—Jen Barney: From Baker to Winner of National Bake-Off (special treats from her Meringue Bakery)
15—Climate Change presented by Casey Meehan, Sustainability Coordinator, Western Technical College
22—Pedal, Pole and Pant—Canada and Beyond presented by Jim Anderson
29—Songs from the Appalachian Mountains presented by Judy Cook

This free series made possible by the Gertrude Salzer Gordon Trust

Call Patricia Boge, 789-7127, or email pboge@lacrosselibrary.org for more information about these programs.

Don't forget our popular Monday Night at the Movies, most Monday evenings at 6 p.m.

Coming in March and April, our annual Music on a Sunday Afternoon at 1:30 p.m. Watch for details.

FRIENDS BOOKSALE ROOM (lower level) OPEN 9-1 EACH MORNING OF MONDAY MORNINGS AT MAIN